We have endeavoured to make our price reflective of most situations. If there is something that we have not listed we will always try and quote a price for you and will advise you of any items that we might not have a completely accurate price on at the arrangement such as obituary notices.

A copy of our price list is available by request and we will make you aware of any discounts that you may be eligible for at the time of arrangement.

You will receive the funeral invoice 2 -3 days after the funeral service and we require payment within 28 days of date of invoice.

If your solicitor or a bank is paying the funeral account, please let us know at the arrangement so we can make contact with them in good time.
